
Contents

Introduction	vii
Chapter 1. Traditional Valuation Methods and Ways of Applying Them	1
1.1. Introduction.	1
1.2. The cost of financial structure	3
1.2.1. Financial asset valuation.	4
1.2.2. Optimal capital structure	10
1.2.3. Theories of organizations	19
1.3. Valuation measures and follow-up measures	23
1.3.1. Evaluation by comparative approach	24
1.3.2. Flow assessment	34
1.3.3. Valuation through propriety and mixed approaches	44
1.4. The perspectives of assessment: control operations	50
1.4.1. The shareholder	51
1.4.2. Control negotiations	59
1.4.3. Leveraged buyout operations	76
1.5. Conclusion	87
Chapter 2. The Performance of the Assessment and the Creation of Value from Control Operations	89
2.1. Introduction.	89
2.2. Theoretical adjustments	90
2.2.1. Reconciliation of the traditional view with the Modigliani–Miller theorem.	91
2.2.2. Optimizing the valuation methods	109
2.3. Contextual impacts and adjustments	131

2.3.1. Leverage transactions	132
2.3.2. Stock market multiples: from the impact of structures to anticipating profitability	136
2.3.3. Two delicate contexts for valuation: the bankruptcy situation and the start-up company	149
2.4. The creation of value resulting from control operations.	158
2.4.1. The creation of value from the buyout of companies in bankruptcy	158
2.4.2. Abnormal returns resulting from control operations	159
2.4.3. The motivation of buyers to initiate control operations.	161
2.5. Conclusion	163
Conclusion	165
Appendix. Demonstrating the Terminal Value (TV) of DCFs	169
References	171
Index	179