

Table of Contents

Introduction	xiii
Christian SZYLAR
Chapter 1. Setting up a UCITS Fund	1
Jérôme WIGNY and Céline WILMET
1.1. Introduction to the UCITS concept	1
1.1.1. A half-century of legal developments	2
1.1.2. Legal/regulatory framework	3
1.1.3. EU passport/brand	5
1.2. Legal forms and structures	5
1.2.1. Legal forms available	5
1.2.2. Capital requirements	8
1.2.3. Multicompartment/class structures	9
1.2.4. Management	11
1.2.5. Choosing between legal forms and structures	16
1.3. Issue/redemption of shares/units	17
1.3.1. Investors	17
1.3.2. Open- versus closed-ended	18
1.3.3. Issue/redemption price	18
1.3.4. Valuation of assets	18
1.3.5. Suspension of issues/redemptions	19
1.4. Parties involved	20
1.4.1. Promoter	20
1.4.2. Central administration	22
1.4.3. Depositary	23
1.4.4. Auditor	25
1.4.5. Investment manager	26
1.4.6. Investment adviser	27

1.4.7. Distributor	27
1.5. Legal documentation	27
1.5.1. Prospectus	27
1.5.2. Key investor information document	28
1.5.3. Articles of incorporation/management regulations	29
1.5.4. Agreements with service providers	32
1.5.5. Other documents	33
1.6. Reporting obligations	33
1.7. Expenses	34
1.7.1. Formation expenses	34
1.7.2. Ongoing expenses	34
1.7.3. Prospectus disclosure	35
1.8. CSSF authorization	35
1.8.1. Approval process	35
1.8.2. Timing	38
1.8.3. Withdrawal of CSSF approval	38
1.9. Incorporation process	39
1.9.1. Investment company	39
1.9.2. FCP	40
Chapter 2. UCITS Management Companies	41
Jérôme WIGNY and Céline WILMET
2.1. Introductory comment	41
2.2. Luxembourg legal/regulatory framework	42
2.3. Conditions for setting up a Chapter 15 Management Company	43
2.3.1. CSSF approval	43
2.3.2. Functions	44
2.3.3. Capital requirements	48
2.3.4. Legal forms	50
2.3.5. Management	50
2.3.6. Auditor	52
2.3.7. Shareholders	54
2.3.8. Registered office and central administration	54
2.4. Operating conditions applicable to Luxembourg management companies	55
2.4.1. Organizational requirements	55
2.4.2. Conflicts of interest	61
2.4.3. Rules of conduct	62
2.4.4. Risk management	63
2.5. CSSF supervision	63
2.5.1. Approval process	63
2.5.2. CSSF approval and inclusion on the list	69

2.5.3. Reporting to the CSSF	69
2.5.4. CSSF taxes.	70
2.5.5. Withdrawal of CSSF authorization	70
2.6. Management company passport.	71
2.6.1. Notification procedure	71
2.6.2. Cooperation agreement	72
2.6.3. Supervision	74
Chapter 3. Risk Management in the Context of UCITS IV	77
Thierry LÓPEZ and Benjamin GAUTHIER
3.1. Introduction.	77
3.2. Regulator expectations	78
3.2.1. From European directives to local regulation	78
3.2.2. Risk management requirements	80
3.3. Market risk	81
3.3.1. Definition	81
3.3.2. How to measure market risk	81
3.3.3. Regulator expectations.	82
3.3.4. Risk profiling	83
3.3.5. The commitment approach	84
3.3.6. Value at risk (VaR).	94
3.3.7. Global exposure: VaR versus commitment.	106
3.3.8. Leverage	108
3.4. Counterparty risk	109
3.4.1. Definition	109
3.4.2. Regulator expectations.	109
3.5. Liquidity risk management.	110
3.5.1. Definition	110
3.5.2. Regulator expectations.	111
3.5.3. How to approach liquidity risk in the context of investment funds	111
3.5.4. Methods and techniques to measure and monitor liquidity risk (asset side)	112
3.5.5. Methods and techniques to measure and monitor liquidity risk (liability side)	116
3.5.6. Limiting redemptions	120
3.6. Operational risk	120
3.6.1. Definition	120
3.6.2. Regulator expectations.	120
3.6.3. How to approach operational risk for UCITS	121
3.7. Internal risk limits	124
3.8. Disclosure.	124

Chapter 4. Counterparty, Issuer and Concentration Risk Management for UCITS funds	127
Romain BERRY
4.1. Introduction: no institution is “too big to fail”	127
4.1.1. Background and definitions	127
4.1.2. Managing counterparty risk within a UCITS framework	130
4.2. Measuring counterparty risk for a UCITS fund	131
4.3. Controlling and mitigating counterparty risk of a UCITS fund	132
4.3.1. Limits	132
4.3.2. Netting	138
4.3.3. Collateral management	143
4.3.4. Hedging	146
4.3.5. Early termination and other legal tools	148
4.3.6. Recouping	151
4.3.7. Guarantees	152
4.3.8. Central counterparty clearing house (CCCH)	152
4.4. Policy and corporate governance guidelines to monitor counterparty risk	153
4.5. Measuring future counterparty credit exposure	156
4.5.1. Definitions	157
4.5.2. Formulation	161
4.6. Managing issuer risk	166
4.6.1. UCITS regulations on issuer risk	166
4.6.2. Measuring issuer risk	168
4.6.3. Stress testing issuer risk	170
4.6.4. Hedging issuer risk	174
4.7. Concentration risk management	174
4.7.1. Concentration risk within the UCITS framework	175
4.7.2. Identifying concentrations in a fund	178
4.7.3. Tools to manage concentration risk	180
4.8. Conclusion: what lies in the future?	182
4.9. Bibliography	183
Chapter 5. UCITS – The Investment Limits.	185
Andrew P. WHITE
5.1. Introduction	185
5.1.1. Definitions	185
5.1.2. Structure	187
5.2. Investment restrictions	189
5.2.1. Permitted investments	189
5.2.2. Maximum of 10% NAV in securities other than those explicitly allowed	193

5.2.3. Maximum of 100% NAV global exposure	193
5.2.4. Maximum of 20% NAV in deposits made with the same body	194
5.2.5. Maximum of 10% NAV OTC derivative counterparty risk exposure with approved banks	194
5.2.6. Maximum of 5% NAV OTC derivative counterparty risk exposure with counterparties other than approved banks	195
5.2.7. Maximum of 10% NAV in securities or money market instruments of the same issuer (except qualified institutions).	195
5.2.8. Maximum of 40% NAV in securities and derivatives of issuers in which more than 5% is invested in	196
5.2.9. Maximum of 20% NAV in securities or money market instruments issued by the same body (except qualified institutions).	199
5.2.10. Maximum of 35% NAV in government and public body securities	200
5.2.11. Maximum of 25% NAV for bonds issued by EU credit institutions subject by law to special public supervision designed to protect bond holders (covered bonds).	201
5.2.12. Maximum of 80% NAV in the covered bonds of issuers in which more than 5% is invested in	201
5.2.13. Maximum of 20% NAV in respect of investment in the same issuing group	202
5.2.14. Index-tracking: maximum of 20% NAV in securities or money market instruments of the same issuer (except qualified institutions)	203
5.2.15. Index-tracking: Max 35% NAV in securities or money market instruments of the same issuer (except qualified institutions) for a single issuer.	204
5.2.16. Minimum of six issues and maximum of 30% per issuance when more than 35% NAV is invested in a single public issuer	205
5.2.17. Maximum of 20% NAV in any one CIS.	207
5.2.18. Maximum of 30% NAV in aggregate in non-UCITS CIS	207
5.2.19. Significant influence of voting shares per single issuing body (excluding certain public bodies)	208
5.2.20. Maximum of 10% of non-voting shares per single issuing body (excluding certain public bodies)	208
5.2.21. Maximum of 10% of the debt securities of any single issuing body	209
5.2.22. Maximum of 25% of the units of any single CIS (excluding certain public bodies)	210
5.2.23. Maximum of 10% of money market instruments of any single issuing body	210
5.2.24. Six-month derogation.	211
5.2.25. A fund may borrow up to 10% of NAV for temporary purposes	211

5.2.26. No uncovered sales of transferable securities, MMIs or other financial instruments	211
5.3. Look through	212
5.4. Market practices and specific cases.	212
5.4.1. Trash ratio	212
5.4.2. VaR	213
5.4.3. Definition of transferable security	213
5.4.4. Borrowing	213
5.4.5. Other	214
5.4.6. Summary	214
5.5. Data issues	214
5.5.1. Specific issues.	215
5.5.2. Data consistency	215
5.5.3. OTC data.	216
5.5.4. Technology advances	217
5.5.5. Summary	217
5.6. Checking process	217
5.6.1. Ex-post	217
5.6.2. Ex-ante	222
5.7. Conclusion	224
Chapter 6. UCITS Distribution	225
Mark EVANS
6.1. Introduction and overview	225
6.2. Domestic distribution	228
6.2.1. France.	228
6.2.2. Germany	229
6.2.3. Italy	229
6.2.4. Switzerland	229
6.2.5. UK	230
6.3. Cross-border distribution.	230
6.3.1. Introduction	230
6.3.2. Development of the UCITS Directive.	231
6.3.3. Key domiciles of cross-border UCITS	235
6.3.4. Attractiveness of domestic markets for cross-border distribution	237
6.3.5. Key target markets for cross-border UCITS distribution.	238
6.4. The distribution process	241
6.4.1. Public distribution	241
6.4.2. Private placement.	242
6.4.3. Fund wrappers.	243
6.5. Distribution channels	244

6.5.1. Introduction	244
6.5.2. Channel architecture	245
6.6. Distribution Channels	247
6.6.1. Banking: retail/private	247
6.6.2. Insurance/Bank-Insurance (bancassurance)	249
6.6.3. Fund platform growth and the role of intermediaries	249
6.6.4. Boutique Intermediaries	250
6.6.5. Independent Financial Advisors (IFA)	250
6.6.6. Markets to target	252
6.6.7. Appropriate products	253
6.6.8. An effective marketing strategy	253
6.6.9. Fees to maximize sales	254
6.7. Distribution agreements, fees and payments	254
6.8. Future thoughts: UCITS in transition	259
Chapter 7. The UCITS Management Company and Delegation	261
Killian BUCKLEY and Ciara O’SULLIVAN
7.1. Introduction	261
7.1.1. Overview of chapter coverage	261
7.1.2. History of the organizational structure of a UCITS	262
7.1.3. Evolution to UCITS IV	263
7.1.4. UCITS IV organizational structure, conflicts of interest and rules of conduct	264
7.2. Roles and responsibilities within the organizational structure	272
7.2.1. The evolving role of the depositary	274
7.3. Reporting matrix – how parties interact for reporting	275
7.4. UCITS IV organizational framework – applying best practice	278
7.4.1. Driving best practice	278
7.4.2. MiFID-like requirements	279
7.4.3. Typical UCITS IV structure	279
7.5. Conclusion	283
Chapter 8. UCITS Taxation	285
André PESCH, Romain JACQUES and Ludovic DEFLANDRE
8.1. Introduction	285
8.1.1. The contractual form: the Fonds Commun de Placement	286
8.1.2. The corporate form: investment company with variable or fixed share capital	286
8.2. Taxation of the fund	287
8.2.1. Corporate income and net worth tax	287
8.2.2. Registration duty	288
8.2.3. Annual subscription tax	288

8.2.4. Tax on dissolution	290
8.2.5. Indirect taxation	290
8.3. Taxation of investments made by UCIs	295
8.4. Taxation at the level of the UCI investor	297
8.4.1. Withholding tax	297
8.4.2. Luxembourg individual investor	298
8.4.3. Foreign investors	298
8.4.4. EU Savings Directive	298
8.4.5. Directors' fees	301
8.5. Management and advisory companies	301
8.5.1. Corporate taxation	301
8.5.2. Indirect taxation	302
8.6. Impact of UCITS IV	305
8.6.1. General considerations	305
8.6.2. Additional queries and open points from a VAT point of view	307
Chapter 9. Alternative UCITS	311
Christian SZYLAR
9.1. Introduction	311
9.2. The main drivers for packaging hedge fund strategies under UCITS	314
9.3. Alternative strategies under UCITS and challenges	317
9.3.1. What is an alternative UCITS?	317
9.4. The cost of liquidity on alternative UCITS returns	324
9.5. Financial derivative instruments	334
9.5.1. Swap	334
9.5.2. Contracts for difference	343
9.5.3. The forward contract	345
9.5.4. The futures contract	345
9.5.5. Options	347
9.5.6. Warrant	349
9.6. Conclusion	350
Bibliography	353
List of Authors	355
Index	357